

403 Clover Court, Cranberry Township PA 16066

Judith K. Boren

Experience

Geneva College, Beaver Falls, PA, Instructor, Human Resources degree completion program

- Currently teaching courses in all aspects of human resources and employment law.

DDI (Development Dimensions International) Independent Contractor

- Currently working with the Customized Learning Solutions team on special projects. DDI works with some of the world's most successful organizations to achieve superior business results by building engaged, high-performing workforces.

Pennsylvania Assoc. of School Personnel Administrators, Consultant

- Communications consultant and webmaster – having served as both a board member and president.

Pine-Richland School District, Gibsonia, PA, Director, Employee & Community Relations

- Directed human resources department for more than 450 full and part-time employees; 250 substitute employees; plus coaches and volunteers.
- Responsible for development and implementation of recruitment, selection and interview processes.
- Directed new teacher Induction Program.
- Developed and implemented the public information program including internal/external communications and media relations.
- Coordinated policy development and implementation.
- Developed 501(c)(3) non-profit educational foundation and alumni association.
- Founder and Executive Director of the Pine-Richland Opportunities Fund; coordinated all fundraising efforts; United Way drive; scholarship programs and grant making initiatives.

Cranberry Twp. Board of Supervisors, Communications Consultant

- Designed, wrote and edited the first Township newsletter which became an award-winning publication in the Commonwealth.

North Allegheny Schools, Director of Community Relations

- Created and directed a comprehensive internal and external communication program.
- Initiated a non-profit foundation for fundraising and alumni relations and served as Executive Director.

Judith K. Boren

Armstrong School District, Public Relations Coordinator

- Developed a basic program for communication in a large rural school district that involved many school sites and news media, from one end of the county to the other.

Armstrong-Indiana Intermediate Unit, Media Specialist

- Directed the creation of multi-media projects to document and communicate a federally funded "Right to Education" project working with severely handicapped children.

Education

Clarion State University, Clarion, Pennsylvania

B.A., Liberal Arts, English / Library Science

M.S., Communication

Additional coursework in Human Resources, Quality Management
University of Pittsburgh, Duquesne University

DDI Trained Facilitator

Professional Memberships

- American Association of School Personnel Administrators
- Pennsylvania Association of School Personnel Administrators
- Pennsylvania School Boards Association
- National School Public Relations Association
- Pennsylvania School Public Relations Association

Additional Areas of Expertise

Strategic and creative and compression planning
Media relations
Crisis planning and communications
Facilitating focus groups
Publications, writing, design and production
Television/radio production

Presentations

Program presenter and workshop facilitator: Duquesne University (school administrative programs; and student teachers); Point Park (student teachers); PA School Board Association (traveled on behalf of the organization to sites in Pennsylvania to present topics related to communications; referendum planning); PA School Personnel Administrators (H.R. related topics)

Judith K. Boren

Community Involvement

Cranberry Township

Parks & Recreation Advisory Committee, Vice Chairman

Marketing coordinator for Township Summer Concert series (current)

Voting Participation Committee (founding member)

Dutilh United Methodist Church, Cranberry Township, PA

Previous/current committee responsibilities: Chairperson, Staff/Parish Relations Committee; Chairperson, Stewardship Committee; Member, Long Range Planning

Pittsburgh International Children's Series

As a member of the Board of Directors. Developed the northern home for the series, first at North Allegheny and then to Pine-Richland